

Friendsgiving for Youth
Saturday, November 16 7:00-9:00 P.M.

Youth, join us for the night as we celebrate and give thanks for our friendships! We will enjoy a great time of fellowship, food, and fun! Sign up by Wednesday, November 13 if you plan to attend.

Thanksgiving Service and Staff Appreciation Meal
Sunday, November 24 12:00 P.M.

Worship with us as members of the congregation share testimonies of how God has blessed them during the past year. If you are interested in sharing a brief testimony, contact Robert Mitchell. This is also a day we express our appreciation to our staff. We will gather in the Fellowship Hall following Worship for a Thanksgiving meal. The church will provide turkey, rolls, and beverages. We ask each family to bring a side and a dessert to share. A basket will be available for cards to the Staff. Sign up in the double hallway leading to the Welcome Center no later than Wednesday, November 20.

Observance of All Saints’ Day Sunday, November 3

All Saints’ Day is marked as an occasion to remember those church members who have died since November 1 of the previous year. Today, we ask family members to stand when the name of their loved one is announced. A bell will toll, a candle will be lit, and a moment of silence will follow in which we remember these members who have passed. Following the service, families of the deceased are invited to attend a reception in the Fellowship Hall. Please continue to keep these families in prayer during the upcoming holiday season.

Christmas Prisoner Packets

All prisoner packets are due Wednesday, November 6. Place them in the designated tub in the Information Hallway leading to the Welcome Center. Thank you for participating in this missions project for South Carolina inmates.

Fellowship Hall 10:00 A.M. - 6:00 P.M.

Fall Craft Bazaar and Bake Sale
Saturday, November 9
Fellowship Hall 9:00 A.M. - 1:00 P.M.

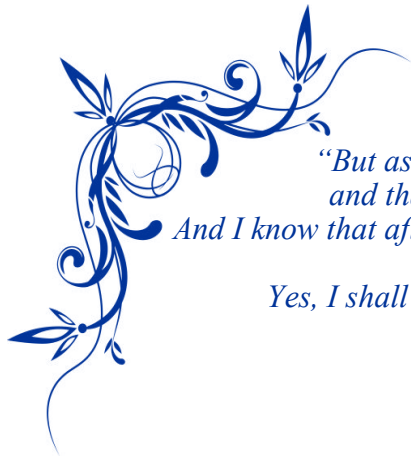

Be sure to stop by the display in the Information Hallway after Sunday School and after Worship to see some items that will be for sale. We encourage you to attend. Be sure to invite your friends and neighbors! Proceeds from the sale will go to Hurricane Relief in the Carolinas. A gift basket filled with our home-crafted and home-baked goodies will be given away to some lucky person. Tickets are only $1 each. The winner will be announced at 12:00 P.M. You do not have to be present to win.

Veterans Day Celebration
Sunday, November 10 11:00 A.M.

Come celebrate the Veterans in our church family during the Morning Worship Service next Sunday. We will Present the Colors, Pledge Allegiance to the Flags and feature special music. We will also fellowship together after Sunday School from 10:30 - 10:55 A.M. in the Fellowship Hall. Check out their pictures on the monitors throughout the church and in the Information Hallway. Speak to any Veterans you see. Veterans, if you have not given your photo (in uniform) to Kathy Green for past celebrations, please submit a picture (either digital or photo) no later than this Wednesday, November 6. Please identify yourself and indicate the branch of Armed Service in which you served.

*“But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives,
and that He will stand upon the earth at last.
And I know that after this body has decayed, this body shall see God!
Then He will be on my side!
Yes, I shall see Him, not as a stranger, but as a friend!
What a glorious hope!”

A Response to Psalm 24

*And draw me into His eternity?
But who can rise up to that holy place?
Can all its splendors really be for me?
Before that holy fire I hide my face
My hands were never clean, as for my heart
He'll search out its impurity and trace
The sources of its sin in every part,
And in the whole, its weariness and stain.
Who can ascend? I cannot even start.
But even as I fear my hopes are vain,
My Savior comes, His love revives my hope.
I feel Him search my wounds, deal with my pain,
And offer me again the healing cup.
Raising my head, He says, "Now rise with Me.
The gates will open for us both. Look up!"*
